REGULAR SESSION

Dr. Greely, President of Dayton Christian School welcomed everyone to the school and provided a brief overview of recent accomplishments. He also apologized for not being able to attend the entire meeting as the school was holding its own board meeting in another part of the school.

City Manager Keith Johnson gave a presentation on strategic and development activities in the City and discussed areas of the partnership between the jurisdictions. Mr. Johnson highlighted development along Byers Road, the Mound, and downtown.

Superintendent Dr. David Vail provided a presentation on Miamisburg City Schools including headcounts, facilities, and operating goals. He provided handouts on the district’s Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Implementation Plan and the Ohio Department of Education’s Strategic Plan for Education 2019-2024. Treasurer Tina Hageman discussed district revenue and expenditure information.

Community Development Director Chris Snyder provided an overview of the township’s effort to revise its Comprehensive Plan. He also reviewed recent development activities within the township. He also discussed preliminary redevelopment plans for parcels near the mall and preliminary development plans for the southwest quadrant of the Austin interchange.
